FOLGER CONTINUES INTERPRETED PERFORMANCES

For the third consecutive season, the Folger Theatre Group will present sign language interpreted performances as part of its regular programming. Janet Bailey and Bill Pugin, the Folger's resident American Sign Language Interpreters, will return for this season's five performances.

The 1978-79 season of interpreted performances at the Folger Theatre Group will begin on Sunday, November 19th, with a 2:00 p.m. matinee performance of WHOSE LIFE IS IT ANYWAY? by Brian Clark.

A reception will follow the performance, designed for further integration of the diverse audience members and to give prominent political figures and local arts leaders an opportunity to receive immediate audience feedback.

The four remaining performances are Shakespeare's THE MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR on January 17th at 8:00 p.m., Shakespeare's THE TRAGEDY OF KING RICHARD THE SECOND on March 6th at 8:00 p.m., Edward Clinton's new play BENEFIT OF A DOUBT on April 26th at 8:00 p.m. and Shakespeare's AS YOU LIKE IT on July 7th at 2:00 p.m. Ticket prices are $7.50 for the new shows and $8.50 for the Shakespearean productions, with a special age ticket price of $4.00 available to anyone under 21 or over 65.

For reservations and information on interpreted performances call 546-4000.

ROCK GOSPEL TO PERFORM

The Rock Gospel has decided to cease concert operations at the end of this year. The group's fall tour schedule is:

--October 21 & 22 Winnipeg, Canada
--November 11 LaCrosse, Wisconsin
--November 12 Rockford, Illinois
--November 18 Philadelphia, Pa.
--December 1 & 2 Gallaudet College

The December concerts will feature a Christmas portion and will be the last such concerts for the group. Rock Gospel was "born" at Gallaudet on December 3,

1969. In its nine year history it has travelled thousands of miles bringing music to deaf persons. They will surely be missed.

SHOWCASE OF TOURING SHOWS

The Street 70 Arts Program plans a showcase of their touring shows for young people on October 24 at 9:30 a.m. in their new home, The Round House Theatre, 12210 Bushey Drive, Silver Spring, Md. Excerpts of each of their shows will be performed by the Street 70 company.

Reservations are required and can be made by calling 468-4172. This program is sponsored by the Round House Theatre Company, Office of Cultural Affairs, Montgomery County Department of Recreation.

JOHN D. BONVILLIAN TO SPEAK

Dr. John D. Bonvillian, visiting Associate Professor of Psychology at the University of Virginia will speak here on Monday, October 23 at 7:00 p.m. in the Student Union Lounge. The title of the talk is "The Acquisition of Language Skills in Non-Verbal Children and Adults."

The focus of Dr. Bonvillian's talk will be on sign language programs with non-speaking, but hearing, individuals. Among the subject populations discussed will be autistic children, aphasic children, mentally retarded individuals and brain damaged patients.

This program is being sponsored by the Student Union in cooperation with the Department of Psychology.
